From C.S. Lewis' classic work Mere Christianity: "This world is a great sculptor's shop and we are the statues. But there is a rumor going round the shop that some of us are some day going to come to life." In Rumors of God, Jon Tyson and Darren Whitehead share with readers how those rumors are true and call Christians to seek a vision of the life that transcends the shallowness of our culture.

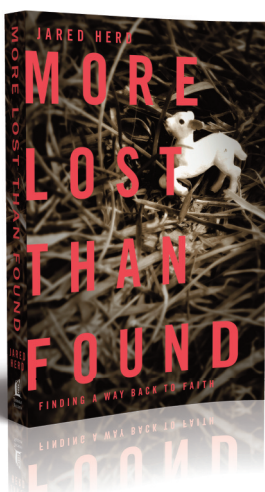

CLOSE ENOUGH TO HEAR GOD BREATHE "Intimacy with God"

by Greg Paul

Does the idea of intimacy with God seem far-fetched and irrelevant to your real, daily life? In Greg Paul's Close Enough to Hear God Breathe, readers discover a rich message recounting the story of a God who has been inviting all of humanity, and each individual, into His tender embrace since time began.

MORE LOST THAN FOUND "Finding God"

by Jared Herd

Instead of a life over, under, from, or even for God, what leads us into freedom and restoration is life with God. Written by Skye Jethani, managing editor of Leadership Journal and author of the award winning blog Skyebox (SkyeJethani.com), With identifies the need many Christians feel for a deeper experience of God in everyday life.
